S.O. 2631.—In pursuance of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), the Central Government hereby publishes the following award of the Central Government Industrial Tribunal, Calcutta in the Industrial Dispute between the employees in relation to the New India Assurance Company Limited and their workmen, which was received by the Central Government on 10th June, 1969.

CENTRAL GOVERNMENT INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, CALCUTTA

REFERENCE No. 19 OF 1969.

PARTIES:

Employers in relation to the New India Assurance Company, Limited, and
Their workmen.

PRESENT:

Shri B. N. Banerjee, Presiding Officer.

APPEARANCES:

On behalf of Employers.—Mr. J. Dutta Gupta, Advocate.

On behalf of Workmen.—Mr. S. Sarkar, Advocate.

STATE: West Bengal

INDUSTRY: Insurance.

AWARD

By Order No. 25/46/68-LRIII, dated February 21, 1969, the Government of India, in the Ministry of Labour, Employment and Rehabilitation (Department of Labour and Employment), referred the following dispute between the employers in relation to the New India Assurance Company Limited and their workmen, to this tribunal, for adjudication, namely:

“Whether the management of Messrs New India Assurance Company Limited, Calcutta, is justified in denying Servicing Assistant's grade to Shri N. N. Bhattacharya and in withholding his increment for 1967. If not, to what relief is the workman entitled?”

2 The employer company has a department known as the Servicing Department. According to witness No. 1 for the employer company, Subrata Bose, the Servicing Department ‘looks after the needs of the regular clientele of the Assurance Company’ This is not disputed. Assistants who used to be employed in the Servicing Department were admittedly known as Servicing Assistants

3. As far back as November 16, 1961, there was a bipartite settlement over certain items of demands between the workmen and the employer (Ext. 1). One of the demands was over grades and item No. XIII, of the settlement related to adjustment and fitting in the new grades at all places in India. The provisions of item No. XIII are set out below:

“Item No. XIII—Adjustments and Fitting in the new grades at all places in India.

Demand. (1)	Settlement (2)
1.	***
2.	***
3. All those servicing assistants who have not been fitted in Rs. 200/- basic salary at the time of selection to the Servicing Assistants grade shall be given Rs. 200/- basic with retrospective effect from the date of their promotion to avoid the existing discrimination.	3. It was agreed as a special case and without a precedent that those servicing assistants who were fitted on a salary of less than Rs. 200/- shall be brought on par with effect from 1st January, 1962, along with others who had a starting salary of Rs. 200 p.m.

(1)	(2)
	As regards new vacancies in Servicing Assistants cadre, they will be fitted in 'A' grade on a salary of Rs. 160/- or Rs. 200/- according to their performance in tests. The decision of the management in this respect will be final."

I need in this context refer to another item of settlement namely item No. XVI:

"Item No. XVI

Demand	Settlement
No direct recruitment shall be made in 'A' Servicing Assistants' grade and S. A. grade.	Generally the vacancies will be filled up as at present by promotion from amongst the existing member of the staff. But in case technical or other higher qualification more experience necessary for the job, management reserves the right to make direct recruitment."

The agreement was to continue up to 31st December, 1965, as expressly agreed upon.

4. The concerned workman, N. N. Bhattacharya, was at first appointed in the Calcutta office of the employer company, in July 1962, as a 'B' grade assistant. By a notice dated May 20, 1966 (Ext. 2), applications were invited from the members of the staff of the employer company for promotion to 'A' grade. The relevant portion from the said notice is set out below:

"Applications are invited from members of staff for promotion to "A" Grade. The number of posts available is one and is, for the present, intended for Servicing Department.

Qualifications Required.	Minimum period of service from date of confirmation.
Non-Graduates.	7 years.
Graduates, other than B.Com.	4 years.
B.Com., Post-Graduate and double Graduates.	2 years

Candidates must possess thorough knowledge of departmental functions and should be capable of handling the duties assigned, independently and efficiently. C.I.I. qualifications will be an advantage.

Selected candidate will be on probation for 6 months and is liable to be transferred to any other department at the discretion of the management."

* * * * *

The concerned workman, N. N. Bhattacharya, applied for promotion to 'A' grade by an application, dated May 25, 1966, (Ext. C). He was found to be the fittest applicant and the Regional Manager, by his letter, dated August 2, 1966, informed him about his promotion to 'A' grade with effect from 1st August, 1966. The relevant portion from the aforesaid letter (Ext. D) is set out below:

"With reference to your application, dated 25th May, 1966, we have pleasure to advise that you are promoted to 'A' grade with effect from 1st August, 1966. You will be, on probation, for 6 months in the new grade."

5 Now, under the settlement (Ext. 1) the grade prescribed for "A" grade was Rs. 140—10—200—EB—15—320—20—440 (20 years). The grade prescribed for Servicing Assistants was the same as A grade with a higher start in "A" grade as in item XIII clause (3) of Ext. 1 quoted above. The grade was later on revised under another settlement (Ext. 6) but with the revised scale of pay I need not concern at present. When N. N. Bhattacharya was promoted to "A" grade with effect from 1st August 1966, he was made to start from the lowest salary in "A" grade, namely, Rs. 140/-. The contention was that under the terms of settlement (Ext. 1) in item XIII, he should have been allowed to start with a higher salary either at Rs. 160/- or at Rs. 200/- according to his performance in the test. In this context I set out herein below a few paragraphs from the written statement filed on behalf of the workmen, namely paragraphs 5, 6, 7 and 11:

- "5. In accordance with the said agreement of 1961 the grade and scale of pay applicable to a Servicing Assistant would be as that of grade 'A' subject to this that a Servicing Assistant would be fitted at either Rs 160/- or Rs. 200/- in the said grade. At the material time the grade and scale of pay of 'A' grade Assistants was Rs. 140—10—200—EB—15—320—20—440 (20 years) which has since been revised as Rs. 225—10—285—EB—15—405—20—445—25—545 (20 years)
6. In response to said notice, dated 20th May, 1966, the said Sri N. N. Bhattacharya hereinafter referred to as "the Workman" applied for promotion for the post in the Servicing Department and thereupon the workman was promoted to Grade 'A'.
- 7 The workman, however, was not fitted in the said grade either at Rs. 160/- or Rs. 200/-.
11. The Company also wrongfully withheld the normal annual increment due to the workman for the year 1967, without any justification".

6. In the written statement filed by the management the revision of the grade and scale of pay of A grade assistants from Rs. 140—10—200—EB—15—320—20—440 (20 years) to Rs. 225—10—285—EB—15—405—20—445—25—545 (20 years) was admitted. In paragraph 8 of the written statement it was stated:

"** since January, 1964, the post of Servicing Assistants was abolished and since Sri Bhattacharya was promoted as a clerk in the "A" Grade Shri N. N. Bhattacharya on his promotion was given pay and scales of the then existing 'A' Grade. The Company states that fitting of Sri Bhattacharya at Rs 160/- or Rs. 200/- does not arise as alleged or at all."

In paragraph 10 of the written statement it was further stated:

"10. ** when a vacancy was created due to promotion of Shri P. K. Sen, Sri N. N. Bhattacharya was promoted from "B" grade to "A" grade. The Company denies in particular the allegations that for all practical purposes the promotion was to fill a vacancy in the Servicing Department and Sri Bhattacharya was legally entitled to enjoy all the benefits of a Servicing Assistant as alleged or at all."

In paragraph 12 of the written statement it was also stated:

"12. ** It particularly denies that it had wrongfully withheld the normal annual increment due to Sri N. N. Bhattacharya for the year 1967 without any justification as alleged or at all. In this connection the Company states that Sri Bhattacharya was promoted to "A" Grade from 'B' Grade with effect from 1st August, 1966 and he is to remain in that promoted post as a probationer for six months. As per the Company's practice, to be eligible for the annual increment in any year, an employee amongst other things, must be a confirmed employee in the grade and has put up a minimum service of 6 months in that grade on or before 1st January in that grade.

As at the material time Sri Bhattacharya was a probationer in "A" Grade he was not given any annual increment for the year 1967."

7. In the back-ground of these pleadings I need decide the dispute referred to this tribunal.

8. The first question for my consideration is whether the agreement, Ext. 1, stood terminated by efflux of time. That agreement was a settlement arrived at between the employers and workmen otherwise than in the course of conciliation proceeding and was binding upon the parties to the agreement, under Section 18 of the Industrial Disputes Act. One of the terms of the agreement was: "This agreement was to take effect from 1st May, 1961 and was to remain in force till 31st December, 1965." Therefore, the settlement expired by efflux of time mutually agreed upon. Then again with effect, from January 1, 1966, a new memorandum of settlement (Ext. 6) took effect with the expiry of the settlement (Ext. 1). Item 17 of the memorandum of settlement (Ext. 6) reads, "This Agreement shall take effect from 1st January, 1966 and shall remain in force upto 30th June, 1969". The memorandum of settlement (Ext. 6) contained nothing indicating continuance of the provisions of item XIII of Ext. 1. In order to overcome this difficulty, Mr. Sarkar, learned advocate for the workmen, strongly relied upon the provision of item No. 16 of the agreement of 1966 (Ext. 6) which provided, "All existing rights, benefits and privileges shall continue as before". Using item no. 16 as a spring board, Mr. Sarkar contended that Ext. 6 kept intact all rights, benefits and privileges of Ext. 1, including the rights under item XIII. Mr. Datta Gupta, learned advocate for the management, however, contended that existing rights, benefits and privileges referred to those rights, benefits and privileges which were not specifically covered by the settlement, Ext. 6.

9. In my opinion, there is considerable loose thinking in both the lines of arguments. The first question for my enquiry is whether the cadre of Servicing Assistants remained. If the cadre remained, then the rights, benefits and privileges of the cadre could not interfered with. Now, it has been satisfactorily proved before me, by documents Exts. 8 and 9 and by the evidence of Area Secretary, Subrata Bose, that the cadre of Servicing Assistants stood abolished from 1964 and people who were serving in the cadre were placed in A grade. Even N. Bhattacharya, the concerned workman, did not merely not dispute the suggestion of abolition of the cadre, he confessed that he did not know it. I prefer to accept the evidence of Subrata Bose on this point. If the cadre stood abolished, then the abolished cadre had no existing rights, benefits and privileges. That being the position, when the concerned workman earned his promotion to A grade, he could not aspire for a starting salary as in item XIII clause (3) of Ext. 1. Thus, I have to answer the first part of the reference made to this Tribunal in the affirmative namely, the management of Messrs New India Assurance Company Limited was justified in denying the Servicing Assistant's grade to N. N. Bhattacharya.

10. The question that now remains for my consideration is whether the management was justified in withholding from the concerned workman, his increment for 1967. It appears from his appointment letter, Ext. D, that the concerned workman was appointed in the A grade on probation for six months with effect from 1st August 1966. It further appears from the evidence of the witness examined by the management that during probationary period nobody is entitled to any increment in salary. The existence of such a rule is also admitted by the concerned workman himself in evidence. If increments in salary becomes available in the month of January every year, as they admittedly are, then in January 1967 the concerned workman was working as a probationer and was not entitled to any increment. I, therefore, answer the second part of the reference made to this Tribunal also in the affirmative that is to say the management of Messrs New India Assurance Company Limited was justified in withholding his increment for 1967.

11. Therefore, the workman is not entitled to any relief.

This is my award

Presiding Officer,

[No. 25/46/68-LRIII.]

New Delhi, the 28th June 1969

S.O. 2632.—In pursuance of Section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), the Central Government hereby publishes the following award of the Central Government Industrial Tribunal, Allahabad in the Industrial Dispute between the employers in relation to the Bank of Baroda Limited, and their workmen, which was received by the Central Government on 20th June, 1969.

CENTRAL GOVERNMENT INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, ALLAHABAD.

PRESENT:

Sri K. P. Gupta—Presiding Officer.

ADJ. CASE No. 1 OF 1969

In the matter of an industrial dispute between the employers and the workmen of the concern known as M/s. Bank of Baroda Ltd. Kanpur.

APPEARANCES:

For the Employers.—Sri R. N. Rai, Officer of the Association of Industrial and Commercial Employers 3B/5, Poorvi Marg, New Delhi-5.

For the Workmen.—None.

INDUSTRY: Banking Industry.

REGION: U.P.

Dated 2nd June, 1969

AWARD

Whereas the Central Government has considered it desirable to refer the industrial dispute which exists between the employers in relation to the Bank of Baroda Ltd. and their workmen in respect of the matter specified in the following Schedule:—

SCHEDULE

Is the management of the Bank of Baroda Limited, Kanpur justified in promoting Shri P. K. Das Gupta to officiate as Special Assistant in supersession of the claims of its seniors Sarvashri B. N. Misra and D. R. Patel? If not, to what relief are Sarvashri B. N. Misra and D. R. Patel entitled and from which date?

In exercise of the powers conferred by section 7A and clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), the present reference was made to this court by Notification No. 2220/69/LRIII dated 22nd March, 1969 but as the name of the Presiding officer of this court was incorrectly described in the notification, the Central Govt. made the necessary amendment by issuing a corrigendum dated 17th April 1969. On the receipt of the said corrigendum, the present reference was registered and the statement of demands were awaited till 10th May 1969. When two weeks period provided in Rule 10B of the Industrial Disputes (Central) Rules 1957 had expired and no such statement of demands was received from either party, notices were issued to both the parties on 14th May 1969 to show cause by today why ex-parte proceedings should not be taken against them. The said notice has been duly served by registered post upon the Secretary U. P. Bank Employees' Federation, Kanpur, as is evident from the acknowledgement receipt. The representative of the employers Messrs. Bank of Baroda Ltd. has put in appearance and filed a letter of authority. Nobody has turned up on behalf of the workmen or the Federation to show cause why they failed to file in this court the statement of demands relating to the issue included in the order of reference. The representative of the employers also has not cared to account for their failure in filing their statement.

From the said conduct of the workmen it appears that they are no more interested in the present matter of dispute and they have not cared to take any steps to substantiate the claims of S/Shri B. N. Misra and D. R. Patel for officiating as Special Assistant in preference to Shri P. K. Das Gupta. In such circumstances this court has no option but to hold that the management is justified in promoting Sri P. K. Das Gupta to officiate as Special Assistant.

Taking the above view in the matter, my award is that the workmen have failed to prove the claims of S/Sri B. N. Misra and D. R. Patel to officiate as Special Assistant and so the action of the management in promoting Sri P. K. Das Gupta to officiate as Special Assistant must be held to be justified. The two workmen concerned are entitled to no relief. No order is made as to costs.

(Sd) K. P. GUPTA, Presiding Officer.

AWARD

These are two references which were referred by the Ministry of Labour, Employment and Rehabilitation, Government of India, both on 3rd September, 1968 for adjudication under section 10 I.D. Act. In Case No. CGIT/LC(R) (50)/1968 which was referred by Notification No. 36/17/67-LRI(i) dated 3rd September, 1968 there are nine employers mentioned in Schedule I.

1. Maihar Stone Lime Company, Maihar.
2. United Trading Company Limited, Maihar
3. Tiwari Stone Lime Company, Maihar.
4. Rai Lime Company, Maihar.
5. Shrikrishna Stone Lime Company, Maihar.
6. S. K. Kahansons and Company, Maihar.
7. National Stone Lime Company, Maihar.
8. Ghal Stone Lime Company, Maihar.
9. R. S. Chouhan and Company, Maihar.

The matter of dispute is stated in Schedule II as under:—

SCHEDULE II

“Whether the action of the employers in not granting to the workmen the first interim relief in accordance with the recommendations of the Central Wage Board for Lime Stone Industries is justified? If not, to what relief are these workmen entitled and from what date?”

Case No. CGIT/LC(R) (49) of 1968 which was referred by Notification No. 35/17/67-LRI(ii) dated 3rd September, 1968 besides having the nine employers stated in Schedule I of Case No. CGIT/LC(R) (50)/1968, had three more employers and they are:—

1. M/s. Jiwanmal and Sons (P) Ltd., Maihar (Sl. No. 1).
2. Diwan Lime Company, Maihar (Sl. No. 9), and
3. M/s. S. N. Sunderson & Company, Maihar (Sl. No. 10).

Thus in this reference, there are 12 employers as stated in the Schedule I to the order of reference. The matter of dispute as stated in Schedule II runs as follows:--

MATTER OF DISPUTE (SCHEDULE II).

"Whether the demand of the workmen that they should be paid the second interim relief in accordance with the recommendations of the Central Wage Board for Lime Stone Industries, is justified? If so to what relief are they entitled?"

2. It would thus appear from the above that the dispute relates to the demand for implementation of the first interim relief and the second interim relief as recommended by the Central Wage Board for Limestone and Dolomite Mines. Choona Mazdoor Sangh Maihar was mentioned in both cases as the sponsoring Union.

3. The Central Wage Board for Limestone and Dolomite Mining Industry was constituted by a Government Resolution dated 3rd May, 1963. First interim relief was announced by the Board fixing a minimum wage of an unskilled worker at 2.50 per day or Rs. 65 per month with effect from 1st January, 1964. The Government gave effect to this recommendation by Resolution No. WB-2(37)/63 dated 5th February, 1964. A clarification of this interim wage recommendation was also rendered by the Board by means of a Notification dated 29th April, 1964.

4. A second interim relief was announced by the Board on 29th April, 1966 raising the wage of a daily rated worker by 50 paise or Rs. 13 per month for monthly rated workers. This was made effective from 1st April, 1966. This was accepted by Government Notification dated 12th August, 1966. The final recommendation of the Wage Board was out sometime in early 1967. Choona Mazdoor Sangh seems to have given a strike notice to a number of employers in Satna and Maihar area on 1st December, 1966 which resulted in conciliation proceedings. From the conciliation failure report sent with the order of reference in Case No. CGIT/LC(R) (49)/68 regarding the second interim relief demand, it appears that such a notice was given to 21 employers of Maihar area and 10 of these attended the conciliation proceedings. During these conciliation proceedings, it transpired that some of the employers had not even extended the first interim relief. When conciliation failed a failure report was sent by Regional Labour Commissioner on 7th April, 1968 which has in due course resulted in this reference. There does not appear to have been a separate demand for implementation of the first interim relief as there is no conciliation failure report with the order of reference relating to the first interim relief. At the hearing, both the cases were consolidated by an order dated 2nd November, 1968 as common questions of law and fact were involved. Hearings thereafter were simultaneous for the cases and Case No. CGIT/LC(R)(49)/1968 relating to the second interim relief which had been registered earlier was made the leading case. Documentary evidence was received and oral evidence recorded in this case so as to govern both the cases.

5. Taking up the case No. CGIT/LC(R)(50)/1968 relating to first interim relief, written statements were filed by Maihar Stone Lime Company (Sl. No. 1), Rai Lime Company (Sl. No. 4), Shrikrishna Stone Lime Company (Sl. No. 5), S. K. Kahansons and Company (Sl. No. 6), National Stone Lime Company (Sl. No. 7), Ghai Stone Lime Company (Sl. No. 8) and R. S. Chauhan and Company (Sl. No. 9). A rejoinder was filed by Maihar Stone Lime Company also to the written statement filed by Choona Mazdoor Sangh National Stone Lime Company. Maihar pleaded that they had totally stopped working from 1965, a fact was admitted by Sri R. D. Nigam, General Secretary, Choona Mazdoor Sangh in his deposition. He further admitted that Tiwari Stone Lime Company continued to be closed. Thus out of nine employers these two are dead industries and for which there could have been no reference nor any adjudication is possible. Maihar Stone Lime Company pleaded that they had already attended the first interim relief to workers and the fact was admitted by Sri R. D. Nigam. There is, therefore, no dispute regarding this also. R. S. Chauhan and Company pleaded that they though held limestone quarry lease yet they were not doing quarry operations since 1965. Others who filed written statements pleaded that their workers are not members of Choona Mazdoor Sangh and therefore this Union was not competent to raise the dispute against them. The dispute, therefore, was not an industrial dispute. This aspect of the matter would be considered at length while dealing with the second interim relief Case No. CGIT/LC(R)(49)/68. So far as this case relating to the first interim relief is concerned, the reference on the face of it is bad in law. As held by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in a recent case Siadhu Resettlement Corporation Ltd. Vs. Industrial Tribunal, Gujarat, reported in 1968(1)LLJ p. 834, before the Government would be competent to make a reference there must be a demand by the workmen to the employers. When there had been no demand raised and if during conciliation proceedings it transpired that some of the employers had not implemented the first interim relief, there would be no industrial dispute by mere emergence of the fact in conciliation proceedings. Sri R. D. Nigam in his statement has nowhere alleged that any such demand was made by him with the employers covered by Schedule to the order of reference. There is no conciliation failure report to the reference and the facts as stated have been gathered from the conciliation failure report dated 7th April, 1968 appended with the order of reference for the second interim relief dispute. It is, therefore, manifest that there was no independent demand for implementation of the first interim relief report and this reference is based on what transpired to be a fact during conciliation on strike notice for failure to extend the second interim relief. Apart from this, when a second interim relief had been recommended with effect from 1st April, 1966 by Board's Resolution dated 29th April, 1966 and Government Notification dated 12th August, 1966 there is no occasion left for the first interim relief demand and that was why by their letters to the employers dated 1st December, 1966 demanded implementation of second interim relief. By that time, the second interim relief had been out and naturally they were more concerned with the implementation of the second interim relief rather than the first. The Union could have raised such a dispute before April, 1966 by which time the first interim relief was operative and when no such dispute was raised, it would not be feasible to consider it after a second interim relief came in existence. On this ground also the reference for the first interim relief is out of tune and inappropriate.

6. Coming to Case No. CGIT/LC(R)(49)/1968 relating to second interim relief with regard to 12 employers shown to Schedule I to the order of reference, M/s. Jiwanmal and Sons (Sl. No. 1), United Trading Company Ltd. (Sl. No. 3), Rai Lime Company (Sl. No. 5), Srikrishna Stone Lime Company (Sl. No. 6), S. K. Kahansons and Company (Sl. No. 7), National Stone Lime Company (Sl. No. 8), Ghai Stone & Lime Company (Sl. No. 11) and, R. S. Chauhan and Company (Sl. No. 12) filed their written statements. As in case No. CGIT/LC(R)(50)/1968, National Stone Company pleaded that they had closed down in 1965 and R. S. Chauhan & Company alleged that they had not been carrying on quarry operations since 1965. It was admitted by Sri R. D. Nigam, General Secretary of the Union, that Diwan Lime Company had agreed to implement the second interim relief and for which was the settlement dated 13th January, 1967 (Copy Ex. W/4). There is, therefore, no dispute with regard to Diwan Lime Company. It may be mentioned that the employers have an association called, Lime Manufacturing Association and this Association filed a statement dated 8th October, 1968 on behalf of M/s. S. K. Kahansons (P) Ltd., National Stone Lime Company, R. S. Chauhan and Company, Malhar Stone & Lime Company, Jiwanmal & Sons (P) Ltd., Rai Lime Company and S. N. Sunderson & Company. In this statement of the claim, they simply alleged that the industry was not in a position to implement the recommendations. Subsequently, however, the employers filed their written statements independently and most of them raised a plea that they have both quarry and kiln. No worker of their quarry was member of Choona Mazdoor Sangh and therefore Choona Mazdoor Sangh was not competent to raise the dispute which is thus not an industrial dispute. By reason of this plea, Sri R. D. Nigam, General Secretary was directed by an order at the hearing rendered on 26th November, 1968, to produce Membership Register and Counter-foll receipts showing the strength of membership of each employer, and file a statement about it on affidavit. This order was complied with by Sri R. D. Nigam on 11th April, 1969 when he filed the statement of membership on affidavit (Ex. W/1) and examined himself. He stated that the statement of membership which was filed with affidavit related to six employers only, namely, (1) M/s Malhar Stone and Lime Co., (2) Diwan Lime Company (3) S. N. Sunderson and Co., (4) Jiwanmal and Sons, (5) Srikrishna Stone Lime Company and (9) Rai Lime Company. The other companies were closed when reference was made in September, 1968. Two of them were permanently closed and they were Tiwari Stone Lime Company and National Stone Lime Company. The other four, namely, (1) Ghai Stone Lime Company, (2) R. S. Chauhan and Company, (3) S. K. Kahansons and (4) United Trading Company are, however, functioning but are seasonal. On screening membership statement filed by Sri R. D. Nigam, for the six functioning and active employers, there is no dispute with regard to Diwan Lime Company. Some of the employers produced evidence so as to show that the membership statement filed by Sri R. D. Nigam relates to those workers who work at the kiln and not at the quarry. For Rai Lime Company, C. P. Rai Partner, examined himself who produced a register of employees of the kiln for the period 1st April 1968 to 20th December 1968. Out of 74 persons mentioned in the list filed by Sri Nigam 55 are employed in kiln and 19 in quarry in 1968. For these 19 also a statement was filed purporting to have been given by these persons to the Munshi of the company stating that they had no dispute with the employers. For Shrikrishna Stone Lime Company, Sri Manohar Lal, a Partner of the firm was examined. He stated that all the 31 persons claimed by the Union to be its members were employees of the kiln and not of the quarry. He filed the list and brought the original register to support the fact. Similarly M/s Jiwanmal & Sons examined Sri Subodh Chopra, a Director of the Company. He stated that all the 55 persons mentioned in the list were employees in the kiln and none in the quarry. Thus it would appear that so far as Shrikrishna Stone Lime Company and Jiwanmal and Sons, no worker of mine was member of Choona Mazdoor Sangh in 1968 and the Union was not competent to raise the dispute for these two employers. Further for the two closed industries, namely, Tiwari Stone Lime Company and National Stone Lime Company, there could be no industrial dispute. No membership statement was filed for Ghai Stone Company, R. S. Chauhan and Company, S. K. Kahansons and the United Trading Company on the ground that they were not functioning at the time of reference. For them also, the Union was not competent to raise the dispute. The only employers for which an industrial dispute could be raised and shall be deemed to have existed were M/s Diwan Lime Company, Mahhar Stone Lime Company, S. N. Sunderson and Co. and Rai Lime Company. For the first three there have been settlement with regard to the first interim relief, copies of which are Ex W/2 and W/3. With Diwan Lime Company there had been a settlement, copy of which is Ex. W/4. With regard to Rai Lime Company, 19 workers of the quarry of the company have been shown as the members of the Union and which can clothe the Union with necessary authority to raise the dispute.

7. As to the question whether the demand of the Union to pay second interim relief was or was not justified, it may be mentioned that by the time reference was made on 3rd September, 1968 final Wage Board Recommendations had already been out in February, 1967. An interim relief is basically meant as a relief for interim period and not to prevail after the final recommendation. As a matter of fact, Wage Board itself in its clarification dated 29th April, 1964 stated in paragraph 5 that "the amount of interim relief shall be shown as a separate item, till the final recommendations of the Wage Board are made and thereafter such final recommendations will prevail." When the final recommendations had been made there was no occasion left to raise the dispute for the grant of first or the second interim relief and the Union should have directed its agitation for implementation of the final report. The demand for implementation of second interim relief when notice was served to employers in December, 1966 may have had some meaning but when the matter was taken up in conciliation the final report of the Wage Board had been out. The Union should have revised its demand and taken up a stand for implementation of the final report. At any rate, when the reference was made on 3rd September, 1968 there was no occasion left for implementation of the second interim relief as final recommendation of the Wage Board had been out in early February, 1967 and the demand thereafter had become meaningless and stale.

Decision:—

It is, therefore, held that in case No. CGIT/LC/(R)(49) of 1968 except for four employers, namely (1) S. N. Sunderson and Company, (2) Diwan Lime Company, (3) Mahhar Stone Lime Company and (4) Rai Lime Company Ltd., Choona Mazdoor Sangh was not competent to raise the dispute. For the remaining employers, Diwan Lime Company has already implemented the second interim relief and there is no dispute with them. With the remaining three, the demand for implementation of the second interim relief is stale and in appropriate after the final recommendation of the Wage Board had been out and adopted by Government. The reference in Case No. CGIT/LC(R)(50) of 1968 is bad in law. An award is recorded as stated above for both the references. No order for costs. Let a copy be placed in the record of each case.

BETWEEN

The Secretary, Coimbatore Cement Works Union, Vetri Nilayam, P. O. Madukkarai, Coimbatore District

AND

The Manager, The Associated Cement Companies Ltd., Madukkarai Cement Works, P. O. Madukkarai, Coimbatore District.

REFERENCE:

Order No. 36/53/68-LRI dated 17th February 1969 of the Ministry of Labour, Employment and Rehabilitation, (Department of Labour and Employment) Government of India, New Delhi.

This dispute coming on this day for final disposal in the presence of Thiru K. R. Ramaswamy, Secretary of the Union and of Thiru C. K. Velayudham, Personnel Welfare Officer of the Management, upon perusing the reference, claim and counter statements and all other material papers on record, and the parties having filed a memorandum of compromise and recording the same, this Tribunal made the following:

AWARD

The dispute in this reference relates to the discharge of the services of a worker by name Ponnar Marudan by the management of Associated Cement Companies Ltd., situate at Madukkarai in Coimbatore district. His services were terminated with effect from 9th July 1968 on the ground that he was declared to be physically unfit to carry on his normal duties. The worker in his claim statement averred that the discharge was quite improper since he was not unfit as stated by the management.

2. The management in their counter contended that this worker was appointed in the year 1950 as a Limestone breaker that he was keeping poor health from the year 1962, that during 1963-64 he was on sick leave for about 15 months having undergone a major operation, and then again he was on such leave for about 17 months from February 1967 to July 1968 that in 1966 he expressed a desire to retire from service and requested for the appointment of his son in his place, that this was done, and that subsequently he changed his mind and preferred to be on sick leave from February 1967. The company Medical Officer who examined him on 9th November 1967 certified that he had not recovered from his illness, and that he was physically unfit and weak to carry out the manual work. When informed, he replied stating that he would retire on his own accord on medical grounds. His services were terminated with effect from 9th July 1968.

3. The parties have since settled the dispute, and have filed a petition compromising the same. The company has agreed to give first preference to the son of this worker in the matter of employment in the company's quarries as a piece-rated mazdoor in the event of the company recruiting piece-rated mazdoor in future, provided the said person is found to be medically fit by the company's Medical Officer. In view of this agreement, the Union has not pressed the claim arising from the termination of the services of Ponnar Marudan. The compromise is recorded, and the claim is dismissed as settled out of court. There will be an award to that effect. No order as to costs. The compromise petition shall be an annexure.
